

American University -
The International Development Program Student Association presents:

IDPSA Friday Forum Series 2009/2010

Reforming U.S. Humanitarian Aid

Can a rewritten Foreign Assistance Act revitalize how the US conducts disaster, famine, and refugee assistance -- to more efficiently address needs, and engage with the U.N. and NGOs?

Friday, October 30, 2009

5:00 PM – 7 pm in the School of Int'l Service Lounge,
American University main campus, 4400 Massachusetts Ave NW, DC

Panelists:

Sam Worthington

President, InterAction (the US int'l aid non-profit association)

Charlie Flickner

Retired staffperson, Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, U.S. House of Representatives

Steven Feldstein

*Senator John Kerry's (Chairman) current staff-person on foreign aid reform and foreign assistance budgets and programs,
U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee*

Kathleen Campbell

Associate Director, Aid Effectiveness, Save the Children USA

Moderator:

Don Krumm

Senior advisor, USAID and (retired) Department of State

For more information, please contact Sandra: 281-744-4752

sandra.yowell@american.edu

Directions at: <http://www1.american.edu/sis/about/directions.htm>