AFTER THE MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS

A Roundtable Discussion with
UN Secretary-General's High-Level Panel Member, Abhijit Banerjee

With the 2015 deadline fast approaching, Save the Children is working globally to ensure that collectively, we learn the lessons of the current goals and contribute to the evolution of an ambitious new global development framework.

The United Nations Secretary-General announced the appointment of a High-level Panel to provide recommendations on the global development agenda beyond 2015. Joining us will be Abhijit Banerjee, a Panel member and the Ford Foundation International Professor of Economics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

This discussion will provide an opportunity for US-based civil society organizations to share current thinking on issues for prioritization in the Post 2015 framework. We hope you can join us for what will no doubt be a stimulating discussion.

SAVE THE DATE

Tuesday, 23th October 2012
10:00am-Noon EST
Save the Children
Suite 500 (Conference Rooms A, B, and C)
2000 L Street NW, Washington, DC 20036
For more information and to RSVP, please contact Andrea Glauber aglauber@savechildren.org

Save the Children